

Abraham Lincoln Brigade Veterans Scholarship: 2021

The WSU Abraham Lincoln Brigade Veterans Scholarship Committee announces its 38th annual competition for a $1,000 scholarship.

Scholarships will be awarded to currently enrolled Wayne State undergraduate and graduate students who, through their activities or research promoting peace and justice best exemplify the values of the WSU students who fought fascism in Spain in the 1930s. The award has already recognized over 60 students for their work solving both local and global problems, from helping communities and the environment in Detroit to fighting for human rights abroad.

Nominations of students and self-nominations should be sent as an email attachment to: Prof. Aaron Retish at aretish@wayne.edu. Nominations should be accompanied by a statement up to 500 words explaining why the nominee is deserving of the award. Letters of support can also accompany self-nominations.

Deadline for nominations is April 9, 2021
