DEMOCRACY:

*With femicide there is no democracy

Challenges and possibilities in the Americas of the 21st century

12TH ANNUAL LA ACADEMIA DEL PUEBLO

Latina/o/x and Latin American Studies Research Conference

The Academia del Pueblo seeks to establish connections between the academy, engaged citizens and urban communities. This year our theme explores the challenges and possibilities of democracy in relation to Latina/o/x and Latin American peoples. Students will examine the complex contours of democracy from multiple perspectives including, intersection with gender identities, health care, educational and migration policies, the global climate crisis, notions of citizenship and enfranchisement, freedom of expression and popular culture.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Delia Fernández, Assistant Professor of History, Michigan State University

Dr. Fernández is a historian of Latina/o history whose work focuses on how Latina/os use panethnic identity to garner more political, social, and economic rights in the twentieth century.
