

LAS 2410/HIS 2440
Revolutionary Mexico: Power, Politics, Protest

Prof. Carlos R. Hernández (He/El)
Center for Latino/a and Latin American Studies
Department of History
hernandezc@wayne.edu

Zoom Synchronous
Winter 2023

Think you know Mexico? Think again!
Learn about Mexican history from pre-colonial times to the present.

- Who were the Aztecs and Maya? What was “the conquest”?
- Why did Mexico declare independence? What caused the U.S.-Mexico War?
- What was the Revolution? Why does it still matter today?

No textbook required! All readings will be posted online for free. Everyone is welcome.
Assignments include weekly journal entries, attendance/participation, and two short papers.
Contact Prof. Hernández for details: hernandezc@wayne.edu.